

CITY OF ZION
LAKE COUNTY, ILLINOIS

ORDINANCE NO. 22-O-16

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING CHAPTER 10, SECTION 180 OF THE CITY OF ZION CODE OF ORDINANCES REGARDING RENTAL HOUSING INSPECTIONS FOR THE CITY OF ZION, COUNTY OF LAKE, STATE OF ILLINOIS

WHEREAS, the City of Zion, County of Lake, State of Illinois (the “City”) is a duly organized and existing municipality and unit of local government created under the provisions of the laws of the State of Illinois, and is operating under the provisions of the Illinois Municipal Code, and all laws amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, with full powers to enact ordinances and adopt resolutions for the benefit of the residents of the City; and

WHEREAS, the City Mayor (“the Mayor”) and the City Council of the City of Zion (the “Council” and with the President, the “Corporate Authorities”) are committed to ensuring the efficient operation of government; and

WHEREAS, Chapter 10 of the City of Zion Code of Ordinances (the “City Code”), regulates rental housing inspections within the City; and

WHEREAS, the Corporate Authorities find that it is in the best interests of the City and its residents to amend Chapter 10 of the City Code to update the inspection requirements for rental housing;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Mayor and the City Council of the City of Zion, County of Lake, State of Illinois, as follows:

SECTION ONE. Incorporation Clause. The Corporate Authorities hereby find that all of the recitals hereinbefore stated as contained in the preambles to this Ordinance are full, true and correct and do hereby, by reference, incorporate and make them part of this Ordinance as legislative findings.

SECTION TWO. Purpose. The purpose of this Ordinance is to amend Chapter 10 of the City Code as set forth below.

SECTION THREE. Amendments to Chapter 10. The City Code is hereby amended, notwithstanding any provision, ordinance, resolution, or City Code section to the contrary, by amending Chapter 10, as follows (additions underlined, deletions ~~stricken~~):

Rental housing inspection and certification.

Section 10-180

- (a) Definitions: Unless otherwise expressly stated or clearly indicated by context, the following terms as used in this section shall have the meanings indicated in this section:
- (1) Code means the Municipal Code of the City of Zion, as amended, all City rules, regulations, and policies, and all state laws, rules, regulations, and policies.
 - (2) Code official means the director of building and zoning or the director's designee.
 - (3) Dwelling unit means a building or portion thereof designed to be used as a residence; or a single unit providing complete independent facilities for the exclusive use of a person or persons, including, but not limited to, provisions for living, sleeping, eating, cooking, and sanitation. A dwelling unit shall not include motels, hotels, nursing homes, boardinghouses, hospital patient housing, or rooming houses, as those terms are defined in the City Code
 - (4) Immediate family member means husband, wife, father, mother, stepfather, stepmother, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son, daughter, stepson, stepdaughter, brother, sister, grandchild, grandparent, domestic partner, or ward.
 - (5) Initial inspection means the first inspection of a dwelling unit for the purpose of determining compliance with the code.
 - (6) Let for occupancy or let means to permit, provide or offer possession or occupancy of a dwelling unit to a person who is or who is not the legal owner of record thereof, pursuant to a written or unwritten lease, agreement, license, or similar instrument, or pursuant to a recorded or unrecorded agreement or contract of sale for the premises.

- (7) Occupant means a person occupying a dwelling unit or using the property as a legal address for any purpose.
- (8) Owner means any person, agent, operator, firm, or corporation having a legal or equitable ownership interest in a property.
- (9) Person means a corporation, firm, partnership, association, organization, or any group acting as a unit or legal entity, as well as a natural person.
- (10) Property agent means a person, operator, firm, partnership, corporation, or other legal entity designated in writing by the property owner on the owner's certificate of compliance application.
- (11) Re-inspection means any inspection of a residential rental property that occurs after the initial inspection.
- (12) Residential rental property means any dwelling unit let for occupancy to a person or persons for any amount of rent or compensation and for use as a dwelling unit.

(b) Prohibited conduct.

- (1) It shall be unlawful for any person to let to another for use or occupancy any residential rental property without a current and valid City-issued certificate of compliance.
- (2) Reserved.
- (3) It is unlawful for any person to occupy a residential rental property that does not have a valid City-issued certificate of compliance.
- (4) It is unlawful to allow any person to occupy a residential rental property that does not have a valid City-issued certificate of compliance.

(c) Certificate of compliance—conditions and term.

- (1) A certificate of compliance will remain valid until the sooner of any of the following occurs:
 - (i) The City revokes or suspends the certificate of compliance in accordance with this section;
 - (ii) For properties having to correct violations, 12 months after the date of the certificate of compliance's issuance; For properties having received a certificate of compliance from the City without having to correct any violations, 24 months after the date of certificate of compliance's issuance;

- (iii) The residential rental property is damaged or destroyed to the extent that it is no longer habitable.
 - (2) A certificate of compliance may not be transferred between owners.
 - (3) A certificate of compliance may not be transferred from one residential rental property to another.
 - (4) Reserved.
- (d) Certificate of compliance—application.
- (1) Owners shall submit a certificate of compliance application on a form provided by the City and provide all other information reasonably requested by the City. At a minimum, owners shall provide the following information for each residential rental property:
 - (i) Owner's legal name, home and business address, home, business, and mobile telephone numbers, and e-mail address;
 - (ii) Property agent's legal name, business address, business and mobile telephone numbers, and e-mail address;
 - (iii) The address of the residential rental property;
 - (iv) The residential rental property's square footage;
 - (v) Reserved.
 - (vi) The application and inspection fee listed in the City's fee schedule.
 - (2) An owner shall submit a revised application to the City within 30 days of any modifications to the information the owner previously provided on a certificate of compliance application.
 - (3) Applications for certificates of compliance shall be filed within 120 days of the effective date of this section. Thereafter, applications for certificates of compliance shall be filed at least 30 days before the certificate of compliance's expiration.
 - (4) Each certificate of compliance shall contain the certificate's date of issuance, the owner's name, and the address of the residential rental property that the certificate of compliance covers.
 - (5) Owners that fail to submit a certificate of compliance application in accordance with the timeframes set forth in this subsection 10-180 (d) shall be required to pay an application and inspection fee equaling 200 percent of the application and inspection fee listed in the City's fee schedule.
 - (6) The City may issue a temporary certificate of compliance when, in the opinion of the code official, none of the violations observed threaten life-safety or health. Temporary certificates of compliance shall expire no later than 60 days after issuance.

(e) Inspections.

- (1) Upon submitting a certificate of compliance application, the owner, in consultation with any occupants, shall schedule with the City an inspection of the residential rental property within 30 days of submission of said application.
- (2) Each inspection made by the code official shall be for the sole purpose of determining compliance with portions of the code related to life and safety.
- (3) The code official shall issue a certificate of compliance only upon finding that there is (i) no condition that would constitute a hazard to the health and safety of the occupants and (ii) that the residential rental property is otherwise fit for occupancy. If such findings are not made, the code official shall issue a notice to comply to the owner or property agent. Upon a re-inspection which demonstrates compliance with items (i) and (ii) in the preceding sentence, the code official shall issue a certificate of compliance.
- (4) The code official shall issue a certificate of compliance on the condition that the residential rental property remains in a safe, habitable, and code-compliant condition. If upon re-inspection the City determines that conditions exist which constitute a hazard to the occupants' health or safety, the City may immediately suspend or revoke the certificate of compliance by mailing notice to the owner or property agent.
- (5) The code official shall maintain a City-wide plan of all residential rental properties occupied or held or offered for occupancy based on certificate of compliance applications and other reasonably available information.
- (6) The code official shall establish and maintain a schedule of inspections necessary to carry out the intent and purpose of this section.
- (7) In the event an owner, property agent, or occupant of a residential rental property refuses to either (i) allow the code official to inspect a residential rental property or schedule a time for the code official to inspect the residential rental property within the timeframe described in subsection 10-180 (e)(1), the City reserves the right to seek an administrative search warrant in the Circuit Court of Lake County, Illinois solely for the purpose of conducting said inspection.
- (8) Violations discovered during an inspection shall be identified in a written notice to the owner or the property agent of the residential rental property. If the identity of the owner or property agent cannot be readily ascertained, the notice shall be mailed to the last taxpayer of record shown on the records of the Lake County Treasurer. Violation notices shall be mailed to the owner or property agent within 30 days of their discovery by the code official.

- (9) The code official shall complete as many re-inspections as are reasonably necessary to ensure that appropriate corrective action has been taken to bring the residential rental property into compliance with the code. In the event an owner, property agent, or occupant fails to schedule a time for re-inspection or refuses to consent to re-inspection, the City reserves the right to seek an administrative search warrant in the Circuit Court of Lake County, Illinois.
- (10) In the event that an inspection is refused, a temporary certificate shall be issued for a period of 60 days to allow the City, in its discretion, to seek an administrative search warrant to conduct an inspection. In the event the City does not seek an administrative search warrant or the City's request for an administrative search warrant is denied, the City shall not use the lack of an inspection as a basis for denial of a certificate of compliance under this chapter. In the event the City does not seek an administrative search warrant within a period of 60 days from refusal, the City shall not use the lack of an inspection as a basis for denial of a certificate of compliance under this chapter or the assessment of any fines or penalties.
- (f) Adjudication of violations and appeals.
- (1) Any violation of this section shall be adjudicated by the code hearing department pursuant to the procedures set forth in chapter 3 of the City Code.
- (2) Any person denied a certificate of compliance or any person whose certificate of compliance has been suspended or revoked shall have the right to appeal to the code official. Such an appeal shall be in writing and filed with the code official within 14 days of the date of the code official's action. The appeal shall contain a complete statement of the reasons for the appeal, the specific facts supporting the appeal, and
- (3) all evidence the appellant intends to rely on to support the appeal. Within 14 days of receipt of such an appeal, the code official shall file a written sworn pleading or complaint with the code administrator regarding such appeal. Such an appeal shall be adjudicated pursuant to the City Code.
- (g) Other inspections: Nothing in this section shall restrict, limit, or alter the City's authority to legally inspect any property nor impose penalties for violations of the code.
- (h) Penalty.
- (1) In addition to any other remedy, including, without limitation, remedies at law and in equity, any person violating the terms of subsection 10-180 (b) shall be fined not more than $750.00 for each day the violation continues nor less than $100.00 for each day the violation continues. Each day a violation continues shall be a separate offense.

- (2) Every act or omission by any person that constitutes a violation of subsection 10-180 (b) shall be deemed to be an act or omission of the owner and punishable in accordance with the terms of this section.
 - (3) An owner, property agent, or occupant's refusal to permit the City to perform an inspection or re- inspection shall not be considered a violation of this section and shall not result in the issuance of any fines or penalties.
- (i) Exceptions: This section does not apply to the following:
- (1) Motels
 - (2) Hotels
 - (3) Nursing homes
 - (4) Boarding houses
 - (5) Hospital patient housing
 - (6) Rooming houses
 - (7) Dwelling units occupied by immediate family members of the property owner.

SECTION FOUR. Authorization. The Corporate Authorities hereby amend Chapter 10 of the City Code. The officers, employees and/or agents of the City shall take all action necessary or reasonably required to carry out, give effect to and consummate the amendments contemplated by this Ordinance and shall take all action necessary in conformity therewith including, without limitation, the execution and delivery of any and all documents required to be delivered in connection with this Ordinance

SECTION FIVE. Severability. If any section, paragraph, clause or provision of this Ordinance shall be held invalid, the invalidity thereof shall not affect any other provision of this Ordinance.

SECTION SIX. Superseder. Any ordinance or resolution or portion of any ordinance or resolution in conflict with any provisions of this Ordinance is hereby repealed solely to the extent of such conflict.

SECTION SEVEN. Effective Date. This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect immediately upon its publication.
